

WELCOME TO THE LAKEHOUSE

Isabelle Restaurant is committed to providing an exceptional experience through exploration, and this philosophy is most noticeable in our wine program. Amidst the selection of recognizable and classic expressions is an array of 'off the beaten path' regions, appellations and varietals. Our list is curated, not just with quality in mind, but for value, with a wide variety of international selections and a growing catalog of local labels. The fortune that we have of being so close to a prosperous wine growing region will always be celebrated, allowing us to adorn our list with award-winning wines from top producers to small, family farms.

FEATURED WINE: 5oz BTL

Domaine des Schistes 2023 'Illico' (marselan, carignan, cinsault) Cotes Catalanes 18 83

Ripe raspberry, red plum, licorice and garrigue elements on the nose. The palate is silky, with a touch of soft tannins and a good dose of mid-palate acidity. Dominant primary fruit flavours of raspberry and plum are joined by roasted red pepper and black olive.

Marselan is a crossing between Cabernet Sauvignon and Grenache, having a riper style than Cab but more structure than Grenache typically has. It isn't widely grown but is popular in Southwest France and has seen new plantings in China's burgeoning wine industry.

WHITE

Can Sumoi 2020 (xarel-lo) Penedes Spain 96

This wine goes through wild fermentation with minimal intervention and very low sulfur addition. Expect a very lean, mineral driven with a salty edge. Great with oysters.

Mad Wine 2017 'Dry by Tokaj' (furmint) Tokaj Hungary 98

Notes of smoke, flint, floral and nutty nuances. The palate ranges from herbaceous to citrusy grapefruit rind with a mellow finish of ripe melon. This 2017 vintage has a unique lower residual sugar than previous vintages.

RED

Verónica Ortega 2022 'Quite' (mencía) Bierzo Castilla y León 99

Naturally fermented and manually harvested, Verónica specializes in old vines Mencía. Her Quite (key-teh) cuvée is produced from 80-year-old vineyards.

Fresh red fruit of strawberry and cherry with subtle floral suggestions. Plenty of freshness and mineral to explore with a silken mid-palette.

Domaine Rolet 2017 (trousseau) Arbois Jura France 96

Pouring a light, dusky crimson hue, this traditionally prepared, oxidative style streams wild raspberry, perfumed cherry, forest wild flowers, and a finely buzzy texture, all wrapped with slightly tuggy tannins. Musky and gentle, this current release means the winery has done all the aging for you.
